

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, we get
more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. I believe it is unfair
and un- American.
